OPENING / ADOPTION OF THE AGENDA

The Annual Meeting was opened by the Head of the National Focal Point in the CR, Ms Zuzana Matyášová, who chaired the meeting. She explained that this time the Annual Meeting cannot be held in person due to the pandemic of Covid-19, but she assured that the Covid-19 restrictions do not hamper the preparation and implementation of the EEA and Norway Grants 2014-2021 in the Czech Republic. She also introduced all participants of the Annual Meeting.

From the Donors' side the Annual Meeting was opened by the Deputy Director of the Section for Central Europe and the EEA/Norway Grants of the Norwegian Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Ms Torill Johansen, who co-chaired the meeting. She thanked for organising the Annual meeting on-line in these extraordinary times and welcomed introducing new participants. She appreciated that the Czech Republic made remarkably good progress with implementation of all programmes and reminded about the mitigating measures and flexibility set out in the letter of the Financial Mechanism Office of 21 April 2020. She also stressed that despite some further challenges ahead it is necessary to avoid any further delays. She expressed the appreciation for the good work and cooperation with the NFP and wished to visit the Czech Republic soon again.

Short opening speech was also presented by the Ambassador of Norway in Prague, H.E. Mr Robert Kvile, followed by introductory remarks of the representative of Liechtenstein, Ms Nuscha Wieczorek and concluded with the opening remarks of the Ambassador of Iceland for the Czech Republic, H.E. Mr Thórir Ibsen. H.E. Kvile appreciated the excellent cooperation with the NFP, especially in communication and implementation of the Bilateral Fund and expressed his wish that the agreement on the allocation of reserves will be reached. He also welcomed the NFP's active follow up with the national programme operators. Ms Wieczorek introduced herself as new representative of Liechtenstein, repeated that the Czech Republic is the most important partner for Liechtenstein and appreciated a good progress in programmes implementation and bilateral cooperation despite Covid-19. She also reminded again to work on reducing administrative burden whenever possible. H.E. Ibsen thanked for reducing the administrative burden on members of the JCBF that are not involved in proposed initiatives and appreciated a good progress in programmes implementation and cooperation on bilateral level although some initiatives had to be postponed.

Although the Agenda of the 3rd Annual Meeting was agreed without any comments, during the meeting the point "Mid-term review and allocation of reserve" was not discussed based on the proposal of Ms Johansen. It was agreed that this point will be discussed separately after this Annual Meeting. The agreement on the allocation of the reserve is included in attachment No. 5.

DRAFT STRATEGIC REPORT 2019

Ms Matyášová introduced that the Third Strategic Report with the cut-off date 31 August 2020 was submitted to the FMO on 23 September 2020 and it contained information about the status of programmes, progress in bilateral cooperation, information about publicity and monitoring activities of the NFP as well as it described whether current Covid-19 restrictions had any impact on the implementation of the EEA and Norway Grants in the Czech Republic. The proposal for the allocation of reserves was also included.

She invited the Donors for their comments or recommendations to the Strategic Report.

Ms Johansen summed up that the Third Strategic Report is very good and detailed. She emphasised that the Strategic Report describes as the key risk the delay due to Covid-19, but also the complexity of programmes and lack of political support to some PDPs. She also suggested for the next Strategic

Report that horizontal reporting on Roma concerns in addition to assessment per programme should be reported in more complex way and be given higher visibility.

She also mentioned that Donors are currently discussing with the FMO how to follow up on the Action Plan on Roma inclusion and will contact NFP in the coming months with it.

Ms Šárka Sovová, Head of the Centre for Foreign Assistance – Preparation and Coordination Unit, confirmed that the NFP is aware of its responsibility to organize the Roma round table and is ready to prepare it when the Covid-19 restrictions would allow. The NFP will stay in touch with the FMO on this issue.

Finally, the Third Strategic Report was approved by the Donors.

BILATERAL COOPERATION

Mr Tomáš Tesař, Centre for Foreign Assistance – Preparation and Coordination Unit, had a presentation about the bilateral cooperation under the Grants focused on JCBF work and current status of the Open call No. 3 and PDIs (attachment No. 1a). Then Mr Petr Zlesák, Centre for Foreign Assistance – Implementation, Monitoring and Evaluation Unit, presented the Covid-19 consequences and current progress in bilateral ambitions under the programmes (attachment No. 1b).

Ms Wieczorek thanked for an assessment of the progress and in particular for a very good cooperation of the JCBF. Same as H.E. Ibsen she appreciated the solution found for the assessment of initiatives submitted under the Open calls. She added that she is very much looking forward for new Czech-Liechtenstein initiatives and reminded not to burden the beneficiaries with too many administrative requirements.

Also, Mr Terje Englund, the Royal Norwegian Embassy in Prague (NoE), thanked for good and flexible cooperation and pointed out that some proposals for improvement will be discussed at the next JCBF meeting.

Ms Johansen appreciated that there are still around 36 % of the Bilateral Fund allocation left for future initiatives and she invited the NFP to consider the Czech Republic's EU Council Presidency in the second half of 2022 as an opportunity for new initiatives. She added that the FMO is ready to support the NFP with examples from other Beneficiary States.

Ms Šárka Sovová confirmed that the NFP is aware of this opportunity and is open to discuss with NoE any proposal for the Presidency, but there is still enough time to do so.

Ms Matyášová concluded the discussion with a wish for the same good cooperation of the JCBF also in future.

PROGRESS OF THE PROGRAMMES AND RISK ASSESSMENT

As an introduction Ms Johansen reminded a zero-tolerance to irregularities and corruption and thanked the Czech authorities for their thorough way of handling irregularities cases. She also thanked the Certifying Authority for the accuracy of this year's financial forecasts as this is of great importance to the Donors. She also appreciated the NFP's continuous support to the POs and pointed out to avoid unnecessary administrative burden wherever possible.

Ms Šárka Sovová together with Ms Martina Gassenbauerová, Head of the Centre for Foreign Assistance – Implementation, Monitoring and Evaluation Unit, presented a progress in the programmes and their main risks (attachment No. 2a). The presentation was supported by the table summing up the statistical data about the projects in all programmes (attachment No. 2b). Discussion was held programme by programme.

CZ-RESEARCH

Following the presentation Ms Johansen summed up that there was a considerable interest in the call and also in CCS projects and that the programme is progressing well.

CZ-EDUCATION

Following the presentation Ms Johansen expressed concern related to current travel restrictions especially for mobility activities and asked how this risk will be handled. She also pointed out that there were some difficulties to find donor project partners and appreciated the improvement in this matter.

Ms Gassenbauerová explained that the risk of travel restrictions in this programmes is very closely discussed between the PO and project promoters, modifications in projects are allowed, incl. purchase of the equipment for on-line communication and the issue is also closely discussed with the FMO.

Ms Wieczorek reconfirmed that this programme is particularly important for Liechtenstein as this is the only programme with a Liechtenstein DPP who appreciates the cooperation with the PO and the NFP. She expressed a wish that mobility activities could be restarted soon.

CZ-HEALTH

Following the presentation Ms Johansen appreciated the progress made in the programme despite the fact that Ministry of Health is dealing with the Covid-19 pandemic and reminded the importance of projects on mental health of children and youth especially as a consequence of the current situation.

CZ-CULTURE

Following the presentation Ms Johansen appreciated good progress and interest in the programme but asked how the risks related to Covid-19 (travel restrictions, cancelled or limited cultural events etc.) will be dealt with. She also recalled a risk related to the building permit for Lety Memorial.

Ms Gassenbauerová answered that all the Covid-19 risks are discussed with the project promoters during the verification phase of their projects and “on-line solutions” are offered where possible. She ensured that there is still enough time for projects implementation.

Ms Wieczorek appreciated the progress in the programme, reminded the importance of timely preparation of the partnerships and regretted that the PO meeting in Liechtenstein had to be postponed and informed that it was planned to be held in Liechtenstein next year.

CZ-GOVERNANCE

Following the presentation Ms Johansen just took note of the progress and the well described challenges.

CZ-ENVIRONMENT

Following the presentation Ms Johansen appreciated mainly that already 4 calls have been launched and 2 of them evaluated, but she admitted that the sufficient time for the projects implementation is still the main risk and encouraged the NFP and the PO to move forward.

CZ-HUMAN RIGHTS

Following the presentation Ms Johansen recalled that this is the most challenging programme due to its complexity so she appreciated the progress made since the last Annual Meeting and complimented the PO for the call texts. She also appreciated the progress on components related to Roma inclusion and empowerment.

CZ-JUSTICE

Following the presentation Ms Johansen highlighted the good progress made and recalled a strong bilateral component of the programme.

CZ-HOME AFFAIRS

Following the presentation Ms Johansen took note about the status of implementation of PDPs and risks described.

After a short break, Mr Árni Páll Árnason, Deputy Director – Head of Country and Bilateral Cooperation Department of the FMO, presented the development in the programmes that are in the direct responsibility of the FMO (attachment No. 3).

Following the presentation Ms Sovová asked for the reasons why 4 submitted Czech applications under Decent Work programme needed to be rejected.

In reaction to that Ms Johansen proposed to set a meeting in near future to discuss the Decent Work programme in the Czech Republic.

COMMUNICATON AND PUBLICITY

Ms Šárka Sovová briefly summarized the NFP's communication and publicity activities done in 2020 and plans for 2021 (attachment No. 4). The presentation was completed by Ms Helena Ganická, the Royal Norwegian Embassy in Prague, summing up the publicity activities done by NoE.

Ms Johansen thanked the NFP for their communication activities, for keeping the website updated and for the successful communication on social media. She pointed out that the NFP is very active in communication and appreciated the website section related to best practice in projects. She also recalled a very good cooperation with NoE and encouraged to keep this up.

H.E. Ibsen was impressed by the work done in these difficult times and proposed to use this opportunity to shift more publicity activities to on-line world.

Ms Matyášová concluded that although current restrictions forced the NFP to communicate more on-line, the personal performance and publicity is always the most effective one, especially towards the general public.

CONCLUSIONS AND CLOSING REMARKS

As there were no other points proposed under Miscellaneous, Ms Matyášová summed up the conclusions of the 3rd Annual Meeting:

- the Donors approved the Third Strategic Report;
- the NFP will send all the presentations to the Annual Meeting participants;
- the NFP together with the POs will continue in assessment and mitigation of possible risks for programmes' implementation.

At the end she also apologized for the technical problems during the videoconference and expressed a wish to meet personally again next year with the possibility of site-visits to some interesting projects.

Ms Johansen on behalf of the Donors thanked for organizing this on-line Annual Meeting and appreciated the good progress that has been done since the last Annual Meeting. She encouraged focusing on further progress as the time delay is a crucial risk especially if the current Covid-19 restrictions will continue. She also recalled the importance of the horizontal concern on Roma inclusion and its reporting. She noted that the FMO and Donors remain available for any help and advice needed.

The school

First classes in Jablonec date to 1774. This was a church school, and as it was usual during that era, the classes most likely took place either at the parsonage or in rich farmers' houses.

In 1869, a new education bill is introduced ordering compulsory education for all children between 6 and 14. By that time, the education took place in two buildings: the pub at no.19 (Zikmund) and house no. 69 (Rolle).

The school building in Jabloneček, which remained standing to this day, was a German school built in 1897. There were two classrooms, a gym, teachers' lounge and two apartments for both the teacher and the school principal. It also featured its own garden, an orchard, a vegetable allotment and a playground.

Although only 4 Czech families lived in Jabloneček, a separate Czech school was built in 1933. However, it only lasted for 5 years as the entire area of Sudetenland became an occupied territory in 1938. The building was turned into a customs house as the border with the Protectorate was nearby. The German school kept on going until 1945, when the German population was forcibly removed. Later the building served as an administrative facility for the Czech army, since 1968 for the Soviet army.

- Fuel combustion and their influence on the air and the environment – bilateral cooperation of APOKS and Norsk Energi

„The Norwegian grants and the "Trolltunga" call allowed us to establish bilateral relations with the Norwegian organization Norsk Energi. Only in a personal meeting can all aspects of the issue be discussed in detail. Norsk Energi's professionalism and brilliant attitude confirmed me in the right direction. Our four-day mission enabled us to discuss in detail the work and experience of both organizations, to learn the procedures for data evaluation and processing, to look at various applications that reduce the negative impact of human activity on air quality and, above all, strengthen our bilateral relations. We greatly appreciate the opportunities and support we have received and I believe that we will be able to establish long-term cooperation between the two organizations, which will be beneficial for improving air quality in our country as well as in Norway." - Stabilization and development of black grouse (Tetrao tetrix) in the Czech Republic based on the Norwegian knowledge

"Czech practitioners were shown the options of Black Grouse monitoring used in Norway. It is planned that Norwegian experiences will be used in the transformation of potentially suitable ecosystems in the Czech Republic. The initiative created materials for further project activities and cooperations which are desirable for both sides. These activities would be aimed at reintroduction, conservation, and management of Black Grouse in the Czech Republic and monitoring and management of Black Grouse in Norway. The publication activities in impacted journals are also the aim of future cooperation." (Ing. Rostislav Linda, Forestry and Game Management Research

Research

- Open call on applied research – 25 projects selected (incl. 2 CCS projects)
- In total 163 applications submitted
- Project contracts till the end of 2020

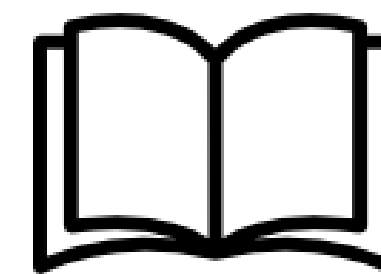

RISKS

Inexperience of the PO with the FM rules and procedures – NFP close monitoring, MCS positively audited by AA on 3 November 2020, finalisation of PA amendment (financial flows and retention money)

Lack in absorption capacity - difficulties with new modalities – fulfilment of new Outcome 3 (VET) after two rounds only 16% of allocation committed – NFP discusses with PO another round or reallocation to other Outcomes.

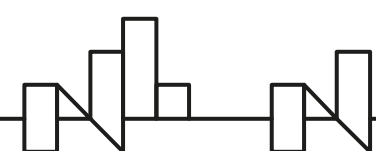

Physical mobilities / participation in events endangered due to the COVID-19 pandemic – PO communicates with promoters – 1st round - mainly mobilities - project modifications, online activities, postponed activities), 2nd round - probably no mobilities till the end of 2020, postponed to spring 2021 + possible project extension

Health (1)

- Open calls No. 1 and 2 closed – 38 applications in Call 1 and 2 applications in Call 2 submitted, Selection Committees on 26 Nov and 9 Dec 2020

Culture (3) - Risks

Insufficient political will and support of the PDP , operational risks related to the PDP - political obstacles seem to be overcome (strongly monitored by the NFP), PA modification prepared – deadline for obtaining the building permit postponement till 2021

Good Governance (2) - PDPs

PDP2 (MoI) – start of project implementation delayed, PA not signed, project modification + addendum to PA under consultation (decrease of workshops with OECD, two new training activities on evidence-based policy making and client-focused approach for the public sector officers, OECD case study for COVID effects) – PA agreed by both sides till Jan 21 and project implementation start in Mar/Apr 21.

PDP4 (MoI-PP) - implementation started in summer 2020, no COVID issues – participation at conference postponed

The results of the project are knowledge of the effects of employment initiatives targeting young people, increased capacity of research institutions to evaluate the effects of such employment initiatives and increased transnational cooperation on labour market issues. Beside Channel Crossings, Pedal Consulting from Slovakia, Foundation in Support of Local Democracy from Poland and FIAP e.V. – Institute for Innovative and Preventive Job Design from Germany take part in the project.

- Programme Operator: The Financial Mechanism Office
- One open call in 2018:
 - Over 700 applications received
 - 20 projects were selected by the Donors this spring; 19 will be contracted

 - The 19 projects have almost exhausted all of the funds – no future open calls planned

The Fund for Regional Cooperation in Czechia 1/2

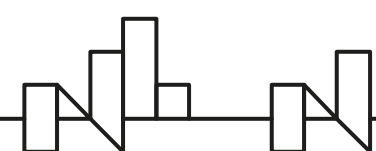

Six projects involving Czech entities are currently being funded by the Fund for Regional Cooperation:

- The Veterinary Research Institute is the lead partner of the project TBFVnet: surveillance and research on tick-borne flaviviruses (TBFV). The project will create a regional network of associated laboratories for the surveillance and diagnostics of tick-borne flaviviruses. Direct target groups are project partners' staff and young researchers that will benefit from collaborative basic research, development of innovative tools and bio-markers, and exchange visits to expertise partners. Planned activities will lead to a stable cross-border network able to tackle TBFV diseases through reliable and comparable data, and will contribute, in the long term, to the definition of a forecast tool for geographical distribution of TBFV. Public health and veterinary institutions, biotech companies and the population at large will benefit from knowledge advancement and unlocked R&I potential.
- The City Quarter of Prague 5 is the lead partner in the project COMPETENCE – Capacity building Of eMployees of municIPalitiEs for beTtEr provision of publiC sErVICES. The project addresses the dissatisfaction with the quality of public services delivery. It is crucial for public institutions to establish a close connection with society and quickly adapt to new needs and requirements. The project will help preventing marginalization and exclusion of vulnerable social groups. The partners will exchange good practice in the field of adult education, build capacity of employees of governmental entities and improve delivery, accessibility and quality of public services in the target regions. The main objective of the project is to improve the quality of services provided by municipalities through building the capacity of civil servants.
- Word 21 is a beneficiary partner in the project New solutions to old problems – exchange of new type of approaches in the field of Roma integration. This project aims to share success stories of Roma inclusion projects in the fields of education, employment, participation and combat antigypsyism in funders and state agencies in order to break the vicious circle of cynicism that 'nothing can be changed'. The project will engage in a two-stream capacity-building process for Roma civil society: Peer-to-peer professional capacity building of the partners by identifying 1-3 good practices per partners and supporting others in adapting them, and project management capacity building through training courses for Roma and pro-Roma NGOs.

The Regional Cooperation Fund and Czechia 2/2

- The Czech Environmental Partnership Foundation is a beneficiary partner in the project Reclaim our Civil Space! - from local to European. The project will address the trends of democratic backsliding and shrinking civil space. The relatively weak response of civil society organisations to these, particularly in rural areas, has highlighted important and historical shortcomings of the sector. Experience so far has shown that the existing tools of the EU institutions are unable to effectively turn the tide. The project builds on two pillars to counter this: broadening the grassroots basis and constituency of civil society through mapping, training and mobilising activist groups and movements previously not involved in bigger networks, and linking this local level to the European by developing together the outlines of a comprehensive European civil society policy.
- The Metropolitan University Prague is a beneficiary partner in the project "The Portrait of a Judge" - a multi-dimensional model of competencies to be measured during the procedures of selection, evaluation and promotion of judges. The project will create an innovative, scientifically based, transparent and unbiased multi-dimensional model of judges' competences with corresponding methodology and tools (concrete examples and templates ready for use (e.g. self-evaluation tools for judges)) to be used during judges' selection, evaluation and promotion procedures. The expected changes will strengthen the rule of law and public trust towards the judiciary system. The end beneficiaries of the project are the judiciary and the whole society. Both will ultimately benefit from the project due to the improved transparency and effectiveness of the selection, evaluation or promotion of judges.
- The Institute for European Integration is a beneficiary partner in the project Building momentum for the long-term CCS deployment in the CEE region. The project aims to renew the discussion on the long-term deployment of carbon capture and storage (CCS) in the CEE region, leading to new policies and joint projects. It is expected that building evidence-based consensus among key stakeholders will pave the way to implement concrete policies and ventures. This will be achieved through combining analytical work with outreach, communication and capacity-building activities, in the form of series of national and regional publications and events focused on the importance of timely CCS deployment and associated international cooperation.

Velký důraz je kladen na lidská práva, inkluzi Romů a rozvoj občanské společnosti.

Kdy budou vyhlášeny výzvy?
Výzvy jsou vyhlášeny průběžně již od konce roku 2018. Termíny jsou v každém programu jiné. Harmonogram vyhlášení jednotlivých výzev je uveden na stránkách Fondů EHP a Norska v sekci Výzvy.

Více informací o programech:

Co jsou to Fondy EHP a Norska?
Prostřednictvím Fondů EHP a Norska přispívají státy Island, Lichtenštejnsko a Norsko ke snižování ekonomických a sociálních rozdílů v Evropském hospodářském prostoru (EHP) a k posilování spolupráce s patnácti státy Evropské unie. Přijemci finanční podpory jsou země střední, východní a jižní Evropy, včetně České republiky.

Jak dlouho Fondy EHP a Norska působí v České republice?
První období začalo přistoupením České republiky do EU v roce 2004. Za 16 let působnosti Fondů v České republice bylo podpořeno již přes 1 000 individuálních projektů v celkové částce téměř 237 milionů EUR. Nyní probíhá již třetí programové období. Projekty podpořené v tomto období musí být realizovány do konce dubna 2024.

Jak je podporována bilaterální spolupráce?
V projektech je kladen důraz na podporu a posílení vzájemných vztahů mezi subjekty z České republiky a donorských zemí. Právě za účelem posílení bilaterální spolupráce byl zřízen zvláštní Fond pro bilaterální vztahy (sloka 3,69 mil. EUR). Podporovány jsou aktivity, které svým charakterem přispívají k rozvoji bilaterální spolupráce (může se jednat např. o semináře, pracovní jednání, konferenze, workshopy, studijní cesty, studie a sběr dat, informační aktivity apod.).
